Starting signal for sport sponsoring of Infastaub is given

25.10.2016 News

„The best for the best“: Behind this invitation stands the sport sponsoring event of Infastaub.

The company from Bad Homburg explores new ways with the first-time competition. Sports clubs in Bad Homburg and surrounding, that stand out especially because of their child and youth work, will be sponsored. Infastaub is particular concerned to subjects like youth development, health and prevention, performance motivation as well as integration and inclusion. The prize money amounts to 10,000 EUR. Altogether five projects will be sponsored.

Infastaub is successfully operating in Bad Homburg for many years. That's why the company feels responsible for the region and wants to help and support where it is reasonable and effective.

„With the sponsoring of local sports clubs we commit ourselves to our social responsibility by engaging in the region and the people living there. Since young people are our future, we concentrate specially on child and youth work in sports clubs,“ luckily comments Infastaub managing director Berthold Geppert.
