We are at Instagram

12.01.2020 News

Even if not all of the Infastaub employees are „digital natives“, we address especially to this group when seeking new employees. Therefore we believe that it is reasonable to have a company account at Instagram.

Instagram is the new Facebook. At least when it concerns the younger target group. Even if not all of the Infastaub employees are „digital natives“, we address especially to this group when seeking new employees. Therefore we believe that it is reasonable to have a company account at Instagram.

We will fill our account with creative picture material and look behind the curtains of Infastaub and to our daily life. Our filter plants might not be as sexy as a high heel, but definitely „instagrammable“. So there won't be only insights of our Infastaub life but also of our filter plants.
